Savant Capital Management to Host Event on Socially Responsible Investing
Workshop teaches strategies that can be used to build a “green” portfolio

What: Savant Capital Management is holding an educational event to provide information on strategies and options that are available to align investment strategies to increase both financial return and social good. A Savant advisor will discuss Socially Responsible Investing (SRI) and demonstrate how attendees can bring their own values into building a “green” portfolio. Attendees will learn the keys of building a SRI portfolio, such as identifying their individual concerns and to what level they are willing to compromise those values.

When: October 15, 2009
Registration: 6:45 p.m.; Program begins at 7 p.m.

Where: Edgewood College—Deming Way Campus
1255 Deming Way, Madison

To RSVP: Call Savant Capital Management at 815-227-0300 or log onto www.savantcapital.com/SAGE.
